- You are required to attend orientation on the campus where you plan to start your college-level program. Lunch will be provided at each campus orientation March 26, 27, and 28. Students who will start their studies in the Seattle Colleges Institute of English (SCIE) must also attend the SCIE orientation at Central.
- Bring your passport, I-20 form, U.S. address, and any proof of English proficiency you may have when you check in for orientation.
- Drop-in advising is optional and is only for students who have questions for an advisor related to enrollment issues. Examples include choosing/changing classes and immigration questions. For hours, see the Central, North, and South drop-in advising schedules.
- Unresolved technical issues related to student portals, ctcLink, SCDGlobal, etc., will be addressed at orientation.
- Information on class registration was provided in your acceptance materials. You may also receive updates on this topic from our Admissions Office and/or SCIE between now and orientation, so check your email inbox frequently.
- Complete the tasks on the pre-arrival checklist as soon as possible.
- Unless otherwise noted, IP offices are open the following days and times:
 - Central & South: Mondays through Thursdays 9:00 AM - 4:30 PM, Fridays are remote.
 - North: Mondays through Thursdays 8:00 AM - 4:30 PM, Fridays are remote.

We look forward to seeing you soon!
